INSTRUCTIONS ABOUT CONSECRATION

29 <sup>22</sup> “Take the fat from the ram, the fat tail, the fat covering the entrails, the fatty lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them, and the right thigh (since this is a ram for ordination); <sup>23</sup> take one loaf of bread, one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread that is before the Lord; <sup>24</sup> and put all of them in the hands of Aaron and his sons and present them as a presentation offering before the Lord. <sup>25</sup> Take them from their hands and burn them on the altar on top of the burnt offering, as a pleasing aroma before the Lord; it is a fire offering to the Lord.

<sup>26</sup> “Take the breast from the ram of Aaron’s ordination and present it as a presentation offering before the Lord; it is to be your portion. <sup>27</sup> Consecrate for Aaron and his sons the breast of the presentation offering that is presented and the thigh of the contribution that is lifted up from the ram of ordination. <sup>28</sup> This will belong to Aaron and his sons as a regular portion from the Israelites, for it is a contribution. It will be the Israelites’ contribution from their fellowship sacrifices, their contribution to the Lord.

<sup>29</sup> “The holy garments that belong to Aaron are to belong to his sons after him, so that they can be anointed and ordained in them. <sup>30</sup> Any priest who is one of his sons and who succeeds him and enters the tent of meeting to minister in the sanctuary must wear them for seven days.

<sup>31</sup> “You are to take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place. <sup>32</sup> Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread that is in the basket at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>33</sup> They must eat those things by which atonement was made at the time of their ordination and consecration. An unauthorized person must not eat them, for these things are holy. <sup>34</sup> If any of the meat of ordination or any of the bread is left until morning, burn what is left over. It must not be eaten because it is holy.

<sup>35</sup> “This is what you are to do for Aaron and his sons based on all I have commanded you. Take seven days to ordain them. <sup>36</sup> Sacrifice a bull as a sin offering each day for atonement. Purify the altar when you make atonement for it, and anoint it in order to consecrate it. <sup>37</sup> For seven days you must make atonement for the altar and consecrate it. The altar will be especially holy. Whatever touches the altar will be consecrated.

<sup>38</sup> “This is what you are to offer regularly on the altar every day: two year-old lambs. <sup>39</sup> In the morning offer one lamb, and at twilight offer the other lamb. <sup>40</sup> With the first lamb offer two quarts of fine flour mixed with one quart of oil from crushed olives, and a drink offering of one quart of wine. <sup>41</sup> You are to offer the second lamb at twilight. Offer a grain offering and a drink offering with it, like the one in the morning, as a pleasing aroma, a fire offering to the Lord. <sup>42</sup> This will be a regular burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance to the tent of meeting before the Lord, where I will meet you to speak with you. <sup>43</sup> I will also meet with the Israelites there, and that place will be consecrated by my glory. <sup>44</sup> I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar; I will also consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests. <sup>45</sup> I will dwell among the Israelites and be their God. <sup>46</sup> And they will know that I am the Lord their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, so that I might dwell among them. I am the Lord their God.
